News From Lithuania

DANGEROUS ROADS

VILNIUS - The Baltic States are the most dangerous countries for road travel in the entire European Union, according to a survey released on April 27 to mark Europe's first Road Safety Day. In 2006, the Baltic countries had more than three times as many road deaths per capita than the safest countries. Lithuania topped the "deadliest" list, racking up 223 fatalities in road accidents per million inhabitants.

ETHNIC FOOD FAIR

BALBOA PARK—MAY 27th

Come Sunday morning the 27th of May, the ethnic groups that comprise the International Cottages of the House of Pacific Relations will be pitching their tents on the lawns surrounding the cottage and firing up their grills, setting up for the 10 a.m. start of the day long annual Ethnic Food Fair. The booths will be open until 5 p.m., or until the tasty national dishes are gobbled up by hungry crowds seeking taste thrills from the many ethnic groups. The House of Lithuania will contribute to the enjoyment of the many with the special taste of the favorite Šaltibarščiai!

MAY = LITHUANIAN PHRASE FOR BEGINNERS:

Aš labai norečiau nuvažiuoti pas dede Joną.
[I would like very much to go to Uncle John's.]

Šiandien labai graži diena.

[It's a beautiful day today!]

Mes turetume važiuoti kur nors į kaimą.
[We should go somewhere into the country (village).]
